

POLICY

NAME: Child Safety Code of Conduct for Students
(All Year 7 to 12 students, including those 18 years or older)
February 2018

UPDATE DUE: July 2019

COMMITMENT TO CHILD SAFETY

All students who attend Camberwell Girls Grammar School (CGGS) have a right to feel and to be safe. The wellbeing and safety of all students in our care is our first priority and we have zero tolerance to child abuse. The protection of students is the responsibility of everyone who is employed at, or is engaged by CGGS in child-connected work. To ensure the safety and best interests of all students, we take into account the needs of those with an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander heritage, those from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds and those with a disability.

INTRODUCTION

This Student Code of Conduct sets out the ways students are expected to conduct themselves at CGGS. It provides practical guidelines to help you make decisions in conducting your relationships with all members of the CGGS community.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

There are Australian laws which are aimed at keeping children safe and to which all Victorian schools must comply. CGGS has many policies and procedures to keep help children safe and which comply with the laws. Everyone has a responsibility to ensure that all students are kept safe in accordance with the School's policies and procedures.

At CGGS we have Child Safety Code of Conducts for:

- all adults engaged in child-connected work
- all Year 7 to 12 students, including those 18 years or older
- all Foundation to Year 6 students

TO WHOM DOES THIS STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT APPLY?

This Code of Conduct applies to all Year 7 to 12 students, including those 18 years or older

WHEN DOES THIS CODE APPLY?

This Code applies whenever you are identified as a member of the CGGS community. This also includes times when you are taking part in off-campus activities (eg camps, excursions, exchanges, overseas tours, sporting matches) and when you are on online.

ACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOURS & RESPONSIBILITIES:

- upholding CGGS's Child Safety policy, including zero tolerance of abuse towards other students

- treating everyone in the School community with respect
- valuing the ideas and opinions of others
- being fair, considerate and honest with others
- respecting other people's privacy
- listening to others when they have a concern about their safety or the safety of others and discussing their concern with either the Principal, Deputy Principal / Head of Senior School, a School Counsellor or a CGGS Child Safety Officer
- promoting cultural safety, participation and empowerment of students with an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander heritage, those with culturally / linguistically diverse backgrounds and those with a disability

UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOURS:

- unlawfully discriminating against students for their age, race, sexuality, religion, cultural and/or linguistic background, including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, or disability
- bullying or harassing others as outlined in CGGS's Bullying, Cyberbullying, Harassment & Violence policy
- putting others at risk of harm
- using inappropriate language, including swearing
- having private, planned, social contact outside the School with a member of staff, without the knowledge or consent of the Principal. However, unintended contact, such as seeing people in the street, is appropriate
- having any personal online contact with a member of staff through social media, instant messaging, emails etc. However, contact such as the necessity to assist students with their schoolwork, or to provide School newsletters, or student reports is appropriate
- exchanging personal telephone numbers or personal email addresses with a member of staff
- any online communication between students, or students to staff of a sexual nature, including intimate photographs
- sharing, tagging or up-loading inappropriate photographs of another student
- being in possession of, distributing, selling, or consuming alcohol or illegal drugs at School or at School events

WHAT IF I AM NOT SURE?

If you are in doubt about how to behave it may be helpful to reflect on the following:

- does this feel like 'the right thing' to do
- am I acting in other people's best interests
- what would my parents and teachers expect me to do
- what would be the reaction if others knew about this behaviour
